

with Acklams Coaches

Further to the recent government announcement that social gatherings for more than 6 are now restricted.

We want to assure you that Acklams are still good to go as planned. Social distancing measures are in place on all our coaches and in hotels. Safety is our number one priority, we are monitoring the government guidance daily and are constantly updating our procedures. If the advice changes we will be in touch with any affected customers. Stay safe with Acklams.

KEEPING YOU SAFE

All Day Long...

- When your coach arrives our driver will exit the vehicle, temperature check you, confirm your seat numbers with you and where these are on the vehicle.
- On entering the vehicle please use automatic hand sanitiser and move to your seats.
- Passengers are requested to wear face coverings
- Once all passengers are on board our driver will conduct a brief safety induction.
- On arrival at your destination our driver will exit the coach and ask passengers to start leaving the vehicle from the front.

Safety is our number one priority.

COACH CLEANING

Prepared in Advance

Please rest assured your coach will be fully cleaned and disinfected before the start of your journey. During the day hard surfaces will be wiped down. An anti-viral fogging of the vehicle will be conducted frequently.
